Queen's Amnesty is hiring an executive team for the 2022-23 school year!

If you have a passion for human rights advocacy and are looking to make a lasting impact on the Queen's community, we strongly encourage you to apply.

Our hiring package and application form can be found in our Instagram bio at queensamnesty. Applications are due by September 12th at 11:59 PM EST.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to us if you have any questions or concerns via Instagram or email at queensamnesty@gmail.com.

The AARC is hiring!

Join a team of volunteers helping students with academic appeals.

View open positions and apply on the ASUS website, at queensasus.com

Are you interested in writing or academic policy? The ASUS Appeals Resource Centre is hiring student volunteers! The AARC assists students in the Faculty of Arts and Science going through the academic appeal process by clarifying academic regulations and the appeal process, as well as offering feedback on appeal letters. Student volunteers at the AARC develop skills in argument construction, writing, and mentoring, all while helping their peers.

No prior experience with academic appeals is necessary for this role; all applicants are welcome. View open positions and apply on the ASUS website. Applications close on September 10th.

Any further questions about this opportunity can be directed to appeals@asus.queensu.ca.

Conceived in CoGro as an ambitious dream scribbled on a few pieces of lined paper, MUSE Magazine emerged as the brainchild of three artistically enthusiastic students: "Z, T, & C". Since our first issue, named The Explosion, MUSE has acted as a tribute to the innovative, the unique, the fashion forward, and the creative. Everything we do is with a nod of gratitude to those who break the mould and expose moments of beauty that are often missed in day-to-day student life. Having published 24 issues, MUSE strives to be the creative hub of Queen's University. MUSE seeks to build a creative community and provide a medium for all creative releases, whether it be for contributors, readers, listeners, and/or event attendees.

Article pitch submissions for our fall print issue, Issue XXV, are now open and close on September 12th at 11:59pm EST. We are looking for pitch submissions that express fresh perspectives for each section of our magazine: arts, lifestyle, fashion, entertainment and muse'ings. All submission information can be found in our Print Guide on our website and linked to our social media pages.

If you opt out, you can still access medical services covered through your primary health insurance on campus at SWS.

Smith Certificate in Business

Interested in adding this to your degree? A few things you need to know.

Curriculum - Students are required to take six introductory Commerce courses, completed in conjunction with an undergraduate degree, to obtain the Certificate. The Certificate is recognized on the final transcript.

- For COMM courses to count towards your ECON plan, ECON option courses are COMM 211 & COMM 221.
- Must be in good academic standing as a degree-seeking undergraduate student and have achieved a minimum of C in any completed COMM 200 level courses.
- As an FAS student, you are allowed 6 units outside of the faculty. No further non-Arts and Science courses will be counted.

For more information, visit the Certificate in Business website.

Unclear of your degree requirements?

Academic Requirements Reports | Queen's University Arts & Science

Understand and interpret your Academic Progress, available through SOLUS. The Academic Progress report is designed to give you advice on what courses you will need to take to complete your degree, as well as warn you if you have broken any of the various rules that govern which courses may be used in a particular degree program.

Still have questions? Contact: econugrd@queensu.ca and please include your student number in all correspondence.
