

Undergrad Office News

What's happening in the QED?

(Click the link or read more about it below)

- Important Dates
- Winter timetable
- Student Wellness Information

Graduating Students

- Current Opportunities

Important Dates

January 21 • Last date to add Winter Term classes

January 24 • New date - Last date to drop Winter Term classes without financial penalty

February 21 • Family Day (Classes cancelled)

February 22 • Mid-term Reading week

February 28 • Return to campus

Queen's Economics Case Conference (QECC) Virtual Industry Night

QECC is hosting virtual Industry Nights this Friday January 21 and Monday January 24 from 4 - 7 PM. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn about various industries in the economy, including financial services, entrepreneurship, law, consulting, banking, anti-money laundering, and real estate investment! We have speakers from many innovative firms including Burgundy Asset Management, MoneyClip, EY, RBC, Accenture, and Graywood Developments!

Friday January 21st:

4:00 - 5:00 PM Burgundy Asset Management Panel

5:00 - 6:00 Money Clip Growth 101 Workshop

6:00 - 7:00 Keynote Speaker Dan Belefontaine (EY Law)

Monday January 24th:

4:00 - 5:00 Keynote Speaker Stephen Price (Graywood Developments)

5:00 - 6:00 Keynote Speaker Jay Stark (RBC)

6:00 - 7:00 Accenture Panel

Register for the event using the following link: <https://forms.gle/19eemYsOvR31u5N78>

Thanks, and hope to see you all there!

2022 Undergraduate Student Summer Research Fellowship (USSRF)

Are you an undergraduate student looking for a paid research experience opportunity this summer?

The Application and complete Fellowship Guidelines can be found on the website:

<https://www.queensu.ca/vpr/funding/internal/ussrf>

Undergraduate Student Opportunity

(Un)hacking Downstream Consequences

Are you looking for a novel experience that enhances your problem-solving skills while attending university? Join the McDonald Institute for a unique event focused on solving some of today's most pressing issues.

Deadline to apply: Friday January 21, 2022

Event dates (duration): February 22 – March 3, 2022 (16 hours synchronous and asynchronous over 10 days)

Eligibility: Queen's University undergraduate students in 2nd year and above in any discipline

Remuneration for 16 hours over 10 days: $325

Format: Virtual

Click here to apply: <https://mcdonaldinstitute.ca/events/2022unhackathon/#application>

For further inquiries, please email: unhackathon@mcdonaldinstitute.ca

Six Faces of Globalization Event

Six Faces of Globalization:
Queen's experts unpack and integrate competing perspectives

In support of Professor Nicolas Lamp's new book, Six Faces of Globalization, an interdisciplinary panel will discuss the merits and limitations of the book's approach for scholars working in policy, law, and economics. How can we talk across the conceptual divides encapsulated by the narratives identified in the book, and by disciplinary silos? How do we avoid just speaking past each other?

Nicolas Lamp
Associate Professor,
Faculty of Law

Alyssa King
Assistant Professor,
Faculty of Law

Joshua Karton
Associate Professor/Associate Dean,
Graduate Studies & Research,
Faculty of Law

Beverly Lapham
Professor, Department of Economics

Robert Wolfe
Professor Emeritus, School of Policy Studies & member,
Global Affairs Trade Advisory Council

Monday, January 24
1:00 pm - 2:30 pm

Register to join online on the Law Events page!

Queen's | LAW
SCHOOL OF POLICY STUDIES QED
Queen's Economic Program

Queen's Law, Queen's School of Policy Studies, and Queen's Economics Department are proud to bring you an interdisciplinary panel discussing Nicolas Lamp's new book, Six Faces of Globalization. This discussion takes place Monday, January 24th, 1:00pm - 2:30pm. The link to register for the event is here: <https://law.queensu.ca/events/panel-discussion-nicolas-lamp-book>.

LISPOP Winter Workshops on Reproducible Research

Laurier Institute for the Study of Public Opinion and Policy

Standards are evolving within the natural and social sciences to increase reproducibility of research. To that end, the Laurier Institute for the Study of Public Opinion and Policy is organizing a series of remote workshops on R and reproducible research. These are targeted to undergraduate, graduate students and faculty. The courses included are an introduction to R, Data Visualization with R, Advanced Modelling with R, R and GitHub for Reproducible Research and R and RMarkdown for Reproducible Research. Most courses are 1-day workshops. A full description of the courses, dates and instructors as well as links to the registration page is found here and on our website (http://lispop.ca/winter_workshops/).

COVID information

Stay up to date - For more information on the measures the University is taking and for the latest COVID-19 updates, please visit our Safe Return to Campus website.

This newsletter is intended only for Economics Undergraduate students and contains information that may be confidential and/or copyrighted. If you are not the intended recipient, please notify the sender by reply e-mail and delete immediately. Use, disclosure, or reproduction of this newsletter by anyone other than the intended recipient(s) is strictly prohibited.
